A GRAVE CRISIS BOTH WEAKENS.

Is Arising In Far Eastern Affairs.
About Ready To Submit To Kitchener.

Russia's Designs On Manchuria
He Is Satisfied With The Terms Offered Him.

Eng'and Wants Us To Help Head Off The Cz'ar.
London Believes That He Will Surrender Next Monday.

LONDON, March 8.—There is a crisis in far Eastern affairs which, in the opinion of the British government, is of graver moment than even the original trouble which turned the eyes of the world to the Orient. Frequent negotiations between Great Britain and the United States have been progressing, with the view of thwarting the determined attempt of Russia to plant herself permanently in one of the rich tracts of China. The conference on Wednesday between Ambassador Choate and Lord Lansdowne had nothing to do with the Nicaraguan canal affair. What Mr. Choate really did was to receive from Lord Lansdowne an important announcement from Great Britain that she is not satisfied with Russia's declarations in regard to Manchuria handed to Sir Charles Stewart Scott (the British minister at St. Petersburg) by Count Lansdof, and asking the United States to agree to a joint action of such a decisive character that Russia's only alternative will be to recede from her position. The answer of Secretary Hay has not yet been received, but it is believed here that Russia's stand will not be tolerated by the United States. Germany's attitude is regarded doubtful. France, of course, will side with her ally.

Wants Chinese Court Restored.
WASHINGTON, March 8.—It is understood that the United States government has requested the powers to re-establish the regular Chinese court of justice in Peking, in place of the military council that has administered the law since the allies occupied the city. The war department has received a copy of an order issued by General Chaffee instituting "a Chinese criminal court of justice" for the section of Peking that is policed by the United States troops.

APPREHENSION IN BULGARIA.
SOFIA, BULGARIA, March 8.—There is increasing apprehension in Bulgaria over the concentration of Turkish troops on the Macedonian frontier. It is known that immense stores of arms and ammunition have been secreted at Kisovo, Uskov and Manastier. The Bulgarian government has received sharp reminders from three of the great powers that it will be held responsible for the maintenance of order on the border. There is great anxiety in Albania, where there is unusual ferment.

ABARONK LICKED IBU.
BOMBAY, March 8.—Abaronk, sheik of Koweit, is now master of Central Asia, according to telegrams that have been received by the Times of India. Sheik Abaronk followed up his victory over Ibn Raschid by driving the beaten army clear across into Central Asia. Ibn Raschid appealed to the Sultan of Turkey to send troops from Bosorah, a Hungarian city, to his assistance. Ibn will undertake a pilgrimage to Mecca, if not captured by the sheik.

LOGAN STATUE'S UNVEILING.
WASHINGTON, March 8.—Arrangements have been made for the unveiling of the equestrian statue of General Logan, in this city, on April 9th next, with appropriate ceremonies. A large number of regular troops will be here for the occasion. The president and his cabinet will probably be present and make short addresses.

MATCHED TO FIGHT.
New York, March 8.—Representatives of Sharkey and Maher met at a newspaper office here today and matched them to meet for twenty or twenty-five rounds before the club offering the best inducements.

LONDON, March 9, 2:00 A. M.—The Chronicle this morning, referring to the armistice at Pretoria, says: "We learn that the notting agent in bringing about this state of affairs was Mrs. Botha, who was deeply affected by the hopeless condition of the Boers and did her utmost to induce her husband to submit. The meeting of February 27th was limited chiefly to General Botha's request to know Lord Kitchener's terms. Lord Kitchener replied that general amnesty would be granted to all who surrendered, and to all prisoners as well, except the Cape Dutch who, being British subjects, had actively fomented Boer resistance. De Wet and Steyn were expressly excepted. Lord Kitchener further promised that, if peace was concluded, the British government would assist in rebuilding the farmhouses and dwellings that had been destroyed by the exigencies of war, reinstate their lawful owners, and help them restock their farms, those guilty of treachery to be excluded from these benefits. General Botha seemed satisfied with the conditions and an armistice being granted, consulted his officers, a vast majority of whom accepted the terms. De Wet and Steyn remain irreconcilable and decline the terms. De Wet declares that it has become a war of revenge and he intends to do all the mischief all he can. Probably the original armistice of a week has been extended. It is believed that by this time the rest of Botha's officers have been won round and that submission will take place on March 11th, when Botha's force will surrender to General French."

MRS. NATION ON TRIAL.
WICHITA, KAN., Mar. 8.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was placed on trial here today, charged with misdemeanor in the alleged destruction of property in a "joint" raid. The defendant's presence in court was not necessary and she remains in jail. After a jury had been drawn to hear the case, the court took a recess.

FOR PRESIDENT OF CHILI.
SANTIAGO, CHILI, March 8.—The liberal convention in session here today named Don Jernan Riesco as president of Chili, against Don Pedro Montt, independent.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.
WASHINGTON, March 8.—Forecast for New England: Rain and somewhat warmer Saturday; rain Sunday, winds generally southeast, fresh to brisk on the coast.

NEW CASES OF PLAGUE.
CAPE TOWN, March 8.—Three new cases of the bubonic plague were officially reported here today.

CUBAN EXPORT DUTY ABOLISHED.
WASHINGTON, March 8.—The president today issued an executive order for abolishing the Cuban export duty on tobacco, from April first next. Governor Wood's approval of the abolition is accepted as an expression of his belief that Cuba's revenues are sufficient for the expenses of the insular government.

MANY BENEFITTED.
Will of Caroline A. Weeks of Greenland Distributes Considerable Property.
Matters of special interest in recent probate court business, was the settling of accounts in two large estates, those of Isaac S. Shute of Exeter, recently summarized in the Chronicle, and of Mrs. Caroline A. Weeks of Greenland. Mrs. Weeks' estate is inventoried at $11,350 in real property and $48,732 in personal property. By her will she gave $2000 to the trustees of the Weeks public library building, a beautiful edifice which she gave to Greenland shortly before her death in 1899. Other public bequests are $1000 each to the Portsmouth Cottage hospital, the Congregational church for care of the Weeks burial lot, and the Methodist churches at Greenland; the town of Greenland for support of schools, and the same town for betterment of roads within a half mile radius of the Weeks library. The largest private bequest is $4000 and the homestead in Greenland to a grandniece, A. Augusta Marston. Mrs. Josephine R. Hazlett of Portsmouth is given $2000; a grandnephew, Wallace Marston of Greenland, is given $1000, and a like sum is shared equally by Islette M., Annie and Lydia Holmes of Greenland. To the following "dear friends" the testatrix gives $500 each: William P. Chadwick of Exeter, Rev. Daniel Rollins of Boston, Charles D. Johnson of Boston, Caroline B. Lamprey of Charlestown, Mass.; Mary W. Odiorne of Brighton, Mass.; Abbie A. Dodge of Hopkinton, Caroline B. Lamprey, J. Ellen Lang, Mary C. Piper and Georgiana Lilliston of Newmarket, John P. William R. Lavinia P., Ellen M., Sarah R. and Ellen Weeks, Edward and Frank P. Hughes, Margaret Mooney, Sarah E. and Mary I. O'Dell, Jennie Wentworth, Hannah O. Beal and Martha A. Pickering of Greenland. The four residuary legatees get each $4987. They are these nephews and nieces: Alonzo Johnson of Greenland, Caroline A. Lamprey of Charlestown, Mass.; E. Augusta Batchelder of Haverstraw, N. Y., and Charles W. Johnson of Centre Harbor. After payment of the government's war taxes the 33 legatees received $26,608, residuary $19,530, a total of $46,138. Charles A. Hazlett of Portsmouth was executor of the will. The Herald has all the latest news.

NONE OF IT FOR US.

Great Britain is sorely worried at Russia's apparent intention to plant herself permanently in the Chinese district of Manchuria. Undoubtedly the czar has in mind a day when he can hurl into India such a myriad of soldiers that British supremacy there shall be swept out cleanly. He knows well that an unobstructed pathway down through China to the Indian border is practically essential to this coup. Consequently he wants all the territory that he can acquire. All this Great Britain realizes. She also realizes that when the czar concludes the time is ripe for his gigantic invasion, not all the might of Britain can avail to bar that mass of Russian fighting men. Therefore, she looks about for an ally of great resources in troops, ships of war, money and prestige. She surveys the globe and finds such a right bower in the United States. She has felt the force of American arms and determination in two wars which left her badly beaten, bitterly chagrined; she is now feeling the influence of American financiering and American commercial competition. The United States would be a splendid nation to befriend her in the hour of need which she imagines is approaching.

So she sends the United States a little note, drawing attention to the grip that the czar is getting on Manchuria and asking our government to join her in calling the turn upon the great ruler of Northern Europe. She would like nothing better than an Anglo-American alliance, with Russia as its sworn enemy. Be careful, Mr. McKinley. Show yourself a foxy Yankee, Mr. Hay. We want none of it. Let Great Britain stand on her own strength, the oft-boasted strength of the "mistress of the world." Alliances are not for us. We are fully capable of fighting our own battles and of winning them, too. We cannot, however, afford to be made a buffer for Great Britain or any other power seeking only its own advancement and renown. We might query of Great Britain why, as she herself has a mortgage on Hong Kong and a few other spots of China's big farm, she should object to the czar's wish to fence in a part of Manchuria. But that would be silly and it would be mixing up with affairs from which we should keep clearly aloof.

Let Great Britain meet and solve in the best manner that she can this problem which the czar is putting on the slate for her. She has prided herself upon her illustrious statesmen, her superb armies, her incomparable ships of the line. She ought not to be forced to kneel to us for assistance. When this crisis between her and the czar comes to blood—if it ever should—we shall look on with interest like the rest of the world; but it is not for us to send four valiant free-born soldiers to slaughter in Europe or Asia at British behest. We have stews in our own pot, without wielding a stirring spoon, to others.

thing that is first class in that state, it is something that has to be chinned.

If there is anything that will put the cigarette out of existence it will be the naming of the articles after Carrie Nation. Altgeld's latest threat is that he will support the republican nominee for mayor of Chicago. The party should take immediate steps to avoid the calamity.

It is now announced that the sultan will pay the Armenian indemnity to American claimants as soon as he can borrow the money. It appears, though, that his credit needs the sworn statement of several responsible persons that it isn't tucked away on some shelf.

We understand that a caucus law is soon to be reported to the house from the judiciary committee. Mr. Fuller of Exeter having been made a sub-committee to attend to drafting the measure. Whatever Mr. Fuller produces, will be, we feel sure, an adequate remedy for the evils sought to be done away with; for not only has Mr. Fuller a great fund of common sense, but he comes from a town where recent experiences in caucuses have been of such nature as to emphasize the need of some law governing primary elections—Concord Monitor.

Senator Morgan is determined to do his part toward keeping alive the Nicaragua canal question, and his irrefragable agitation at this harmless stage of the proceedings is to be welcomed. Even his demand for the instant abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty is calculated to direct attention to that much disputed agreement and force the question of what is to be done with it, says the New York Mail and Express. It is safe to say that after the repeated acts and declarations by which its vitality has been recognized, it will not be pronounced dead except by a joint inquest of the two parties concerned in its creation. It is for our interest to keep it alive until something has been provided to take its place better adapted to present conditions. Some of its provisions have been rendered practically obsolete by events and others are unnecessary, but it still binds the two governments to the neutrality of the interoceanic canal. It furnishes a footing and a starting point for new negotiations between the two powers and thereby it serves an important purpose. Those negotiations should not aim at a bald abrogation of the existing treaty, but a substitution for it of an agreement adapted to present conditions and requirements.

SENATOR URCH MASTER OF THE SITUATION.

The result of the fight in the state senate on the coroner's bill, which lasted during the whole of the morning session, on Wednesday, the 6th inst., and until 12:35 in the afternoon, was unexpectedly launched by a motion of the senator from this district to "indefinitely postpone" the bill, as it was about to pass its third reading in that body.

The roll call on this motion resulted nine to ten against the motion, and usually this might have been expected to end further opposition. Not so in this case. Motion after motion succeeded each other in hot succession from Senator Urch. Divisions were repeatedly had, with demands for the yeas and nays coming from opposers and opposed.

Repeated roll calls showed our senator's supporters becoming scared, and they dropped off until repeated demands for the yeas and nays found him fighting the battle with not a single supporter. Twenty to one was the result on several roll calls.

Opposed to the senator from this district in debate were Senators Remick, Chase, Leach and Stevens, all lawyers, with Senator Shontell and others giving them good support, both in tactics and debate, to say nothing of their votes on all questions so continuously interjected by the parliamentary demands of the Portsmouth senator. Once the president decided a point of order against Senator Urch, upon which the latter promptly appealed. Debate upon the appeal on the part of the latter found him basing his position on the indisputable reading of the adopted "rules of the senate," the president supporting his decision by quoting from the parliamentary tactics of Thomas B. Reed. Of course the senate sustained the presiding officer. This was the first appeal made in either branch of the legislature for the session.

At the end of the morning session, after fifteen or twenty roll call defeats, Senator Urch found himself absolutely master of the situation. He had succeeded in postponing the bill until after an adjournment.

This result, by parliamentary law and the rules of the senate, made every vote and every decision and roll call against Senator Urch absolutely null and void, and he was at perfect liberty to start afresh with his almost inexhaustible list of subsidiary motions.

On the opening of the afternoon session, the senate was packed, expecting a continuance of the parliamentary sparring. The special order was called up promptly by our senator, who proceeded to move that the bill be put back on its second reading, pending which a parley was held. The opponents of Senator Urch had their choice, to continue the fight or vote yes on the motion of the latter to put the bill back one stage, and then upon his further motion, vote to order the bill back to the committee whence it came,—the committee on revision of laws.

This latter was agreed to and the bill was ordered put back and recommitted.

The committee now has agreed to incorporate an amendment embracing all the points contended for by the senator from this district.

This will prove a great victory to all the coroners of this state, two or three of whom were present during the long and hot debate.

BOWLES NOW AN ADMIRAL.

He Becomes Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair.

Francis S. Bowles of Massachusetts on Friday took the oath of office as chief of the bureau of construction and repair, succeeding Admiral Bickborn, and entered immediately upon his duties as chief constructor.

Mr. Bowles will have the rank and pay of rear admiral being the youngest officer in the navy with that rank. He made a good impression on all who met him. He comes to the construction bureau with a high reputation.

A number of changes will follow Admiral Bowles' action into the bureau, chief of which will be Capt. Hamilton Linnard, of the Philadelphia yard, succeeding Capt. Woodward, who assumed other duties.

BROUGHT TWO SUITS.

Oscar G. Randall and Roland M. Penny Ask Money for Injuries.

Judge Samuel W. Emery, counsel for Oscar G. Randall and Roland M. Penny, Friday afternoon brought two suits against the Portsmouth Shoe company for $2000 and $3000 respectively.

Penny alleges that on Dec. 23, 1899, while operating a leather rolling machine in the defendant company's mill, the third finger of his left hand was caught in exposed gearing and mangled so that it was necessary to amputate it. He claims damages of $3000.

Oscar G. Randall, who is a minor, alleges that on Oct. 1, 1900, while at work on a heating cut machine, which was defective, in the same mill, his index and middle fingers were mangled so that it was necessary to amputate. He wants $3000.

KITTERY.

Miss Nettie Hanscom is enjoying a vacation from her duties in the Portsmouth Times office.

There is no improvement in the condition of Mr. Sewall Prince, and but little hope is expressed for his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ames Randlett are rejoicing over the arrival of a little stranger at their home on Friday afternoon. It is a little girl.

The Kittery High school closed the winter term on Friday afternoon. The schools in district No. 9 will close on Tuesday next until the spring term.

Foreman boat builder George E. Dixon is quite sick with an attack of the grip. Mr. Dixon was attacked Friday afternoon and is now restricted to his bed.

Mr. G. W. Leavitt of Exeter, who is passing the winter with her father, Mr. Arthur Williams, Love Lane, went to her home Friday to stay over Sunday.

Big crowds from Kittery and York have attended the Jere McLaughlin performances at Music hall, Portsmouth, this week. The McLaughlin company is a favorite with theatre goers on this side of the river.

John Bunyan should have walked in Kittery's streets before he attempted to do justice to his description of the leugh of despond. He could have made that part of Pilgrim's Progress much more realistic by taking a walk along Government street. He would have been in danger of living after to write the book.

HEAVY DAMAGES ASKED.

Two Suits Against the B. & M. for $30,000 Each, for Alleged Injuries.

Two suits, asking for heavy damages for alleged personal injuries, have been brought against the Boston & Maine railroad and will be heard at the coming term of the supreme court.

One has been brought by Judge Samuel W. Emery on behalf of Henry Little of Exeter, who asks for $30,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained in the smashing of his carriage by a locomotive at North Hampton.

The other suit is for $30,000 also and has been brought for Alice B. Walker of Newmarket, who claims that she was injured by the sudden, unexpected and violent starting of a passenger car on which she was a passenger. Attorney Dwight Hall of Dover is associated with Judge Emery in the prosecution of this latter suit.

The selectmen of Hampton have offered $150 award for the arrest and conviction of the persons who tore down the warrant from the town hall.

The street car rails were in a slippery condition Friday evening and the motor-men experienced much difficulty in stopping exactly on the street crossings.

Take off your hat to the blue bird and spring, says the Newburyport News. It would be well to keep your hat off but a short time, just at present. Your scalp might get a chill, otherwise.

The Knight trial and the police's attention appear to have taken the interest out of Saco terpsichorean affairs. One resident says there were only nineteen present at the last dancing assembly.

A man answering the description of Samuel J. Locke of South Berwick, who has been missing from his home since the trial of Knight at Saco, had a night's lodging at the New Home at York Corner one night last week.

The freight business on the Eastern division of the Boston & Maine has been heavy this week, two extra freights being run each way between Boston and Portland on Monday and one each way on Tuesday and Wednesday.

According to the present indications, the coming season will be a very active one in building. Many have already signified their intention of building as soon as the season opens. Rents are scarce as ever and as soon as it is known that a desirable house is to be built for this purpose there are many applicants.

The police of this city have been requested to locate Willis S. Smith, who disappeared from Chicago some months ago. He is now heir to $30,000 and no trace of him has been found. His description as given is: Medium height, fair complexion, brown hair, blue eyes, weight about 180 pounds and is 38 years of age. Smith was formerly a commercial traveler.

Leonsidow, the Egyptian palmist, was released from the Merrimack county jail in Concord Friday afternoon and that evening he and counsel boarded a train for Boston. A settlement was effected. Leonsidow, who is well known in Portsmouth, where he once located, had been in jail since Aug. 23, having been indicted at the October term of court for obtaining a large sum of money under false pretences. The story of his arrest and subsequent proceedings have been told in detail in the columns of this paper. The money was obtained from a Concord woman, whom he promised to marry, so she said.

REGULAR TICKET WON.

The caucus of the republicans of York developed into a warm contest on Friday evening and the regular ticket won. There is a split in the party over the result and there will be an independent ticket in the field on Monday, town election day.

The following ticket was the one nominated, the whole number of votes being cast, 301.

Town clerk, George F. Maisted;
Selectmen, assessors and overseers of poor, Harry Norton, J. P. Putnam, Charles H. Young;

Collector and constable, Samuel A. Probie;
Town agent, W. T. Keen;
Road commissioner, H. W. Trafton;
Superintending school committee, man, E. D. Philbrick;
Supervisor of schools, E. C. Cook;
Auditor, Samuel W. Jenkins.

The Old Ones.

"We'll have to give up the idea of putting pictures in the parlor, Jane," remarked old John Turnwood as he threw the bundle under the table.

"Why?" asked his wife.

"Too dear! Why, I priced one in town today, and the dealer sez, sez he, 'That's an old master; its price is $600.'"

"Why," sez I, "it looks like a second-hand picture."

"Then, thinks I, if a second-hand picture costs that much, it's no use to prices now un. So, Jane, I reckon we'll have to hang up a few mottoes, 'God Bless Our Home' and the like, and let the picture's go."

Pearson's Weekly.

Land cultivated by irrigation is more productive than land where rainfall moisture alone is sufficient to mature the crops.

An average sheep yields 61 pounds of meat, 43 pounds of fat and 19 pounds of hide and wool.

CITY BRIEFS

Tuesday will be election day. There are but few lobsters in the city.

Several new boats are to fly the Yacht club's colors this year.

The McAniff company has done a big business all this week.

George Woods leads handily in the Yacht club's pool tournament.

Joy and Philbrick's orchestra is to play in Newmarket on May first.

The annual parish meeting of St. John's church will be held on Easter Monday.

The United States district court will convene in this city one week from next Tuesday.

The regular meeting of the Kearsarge Naval veterans was held at Good Temp lars' hall on Friday evening.

St. Andrew's lodge, A. F. and A. M., will confer the fellowcraft degree on one candidate next Monday evening.

There will be no session of the High school next Monday, as the teachers are to visit the high schools of Boston.

Theatre goers are looking forward with great interest to the return engagement of When We Were Twenty-One.

"A dose in time saves lives," Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, nature's remedy for coughs, colds, pulmonary diseases of every sort.

At the meeting of the Red Men next Monday evening, several degrees will be conferred and there will be a banquet.

The wide brim soft hat will be the proper thing for gentlemen this summer. The hat has a western effect with graceful curves to the brim.

A household necessity—Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil. Heals burns, cuts, wounds of any sort; cures sore throat, croup, catarrh, asthma; never fails.

Have you seen the new star? If not, you want to get your glass focused pretty quickly, for it is going out of sight fast.

Hives are a terrible torment to the little folks, and to some older ones. Easily cured. Doan's Ointment never fails. Instant relief, permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.

On sale Saturday, one car of California Naval Oranges at the Globe Grocery Co. 22 Navels for 25 cents and 12 Large Fancy Navels for 25 cents.

The strongest and best bill of the week has been reserved for the final performance of the McAniff company at Music hall tonight.

There were but few farm teams in the city today, the horrible condition of the country roads discouraging travel. The Saturday business suffered as a result.

"I owe my whole life to Burdock Blood Bitters. Scrofulous sores covered my body. I seemed beyond cure. B. B. B. has made me a perfectly well woman." Mrs. Chas. Hutton, Berville, Mich.

The Newburyport police station telephone has been put on a separate wire, so that the subscribers to the system in that city cannot listen to the business transacted over the line. There must be a lot of "rubbers" in Newburyport to make such a thing necessary.

TIME MAKES INROADS.

A writer on matters of interest to Odd Fellows in the state says in the Manchester Union: "The writer took the Grand lodge degree at Portsmouth in 1853, at the same time Dr. Alama Moor did, a brief sketch of whose life appears in the department today. The late Dr. David T. Parker of Farmington took his degree at the same session, as also did Hon. John Kimball of White Mountain Lodge, No. 5, now, and from its organization the president of the Odd Fellows' home. Of the sixty past grands admitted to the Grand lodge on the 16th day of August, 1853, it is thought that not more than six or seven are now living, and perhaps not that number. What inroads time makes in the ranks of men!"

UNDER SEALED ORDERS.

The bill of the McAniff company at Music hall on Friday evening was under sealed orders and it was well received by the large audience. Indeed, compared finely with any of the preceding performances of the engagement. All the parts were judiciously cast, and the effect was strong. Recalls were demanded in several of the specialties.

The company will put on All For Gold at the matinee today (Saturday), while the week's repertoire will close this evening with In The Heart Of The Storm.

The genuine White Rats are coming to this city next week.

AT THE ADVENT CHURCH.

The subject of the afternoon discourse at the Advent Christian church tomorrow will be, "A Plain Gospel for the Common People." This sermon will be a vigorous protest against the mystical interpretation of the Scriptures and pulpit infidelity. Service at 2:45 p. m. Other services as follows: Social meeting at 10:30 a. m., Sunday school at 12 m. Children's meeting at 7 p. m., followed by preaching at 7:15. All are cordially invited to these services.

STRIKES A RICH FIND.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Globe Grocery Co.

HIS EYE BLOWN OUT.

Herbert Berry, a laborer at Maplewood farm, had his right eye blown out on Thursday, by an explosion of dynamite in the sand pit where he was working. His pick struck a cartridge. Berry was carried to the farmhouse, unconscious, and Dr. Towle was called. Upon his advice, the injured man was removed to the Cottage hospital. Berry is about thirty-five years old and unmarried.

POLICE COURT.

Richard Marston was in police court this forenoon and was convicted of an assault on William Carleton. A fine of $2 and costs of $5.76 was imposed and was suspended during good behavior.

THE WHITE RATS COMING.

The White Rats are coming to Music hall for an evening next week. Everybody has been reading about the White Rats lately and there are thousands of them in Boston now.

AT THE END OF ONE WEEK

How the Voting Stands in Pan-American Contest?

Fifteen Names on the List, With Thousands of Friends Working.

Interest is as Great as Was Expected and Even More so.

One week of the Pan-American trip voting contest has passed and the rivalry that has been developed is all that it was expected to be, and more than that.

There are now fifteen names entered in the list of contestants. Every one of the persons in the list has many friends. These friends are interested more than it appears in the number of votes that have been placed opposite the name of each.

No great amount of votes are expected during the starting days of the contest. The friends who hustle can show the results of their work later on just as well as at present, and there will be a lively scramble when it all begins to show.

The way it looks at the end of the first week is like this:

Harold N. Hett, Portsmouth Bicycle club,	210
John F. Leary, A. O. H.,	156
William S. Fernald, Chemical Engine Co. No. 5,	33
Edwin F. Howe, Warner club,	11
Charles W. Hanson, K. G. E.,	8
Charles D. Varrell, Sagamore S. F. E. Co.,	8
W. J. Kehoe, P. O. C.,	8
Capt. Horace E. Faverly, Co. B, N. H. N. G.,	8
John Ham, W. J. Sampson, H. & L. Co.,	7
Charles H. Kehoe, M. H. Goodrich Co.,	6
Dennis J. Lynch, Kearsarge Engine Co.,	6
Fred Manson, M. H. Goodrich Co.,	5
John A. Harmon, assistant engineer, P. F. D.,	2
George Jones, Kearsarge Engine Co.,	1

The conditions of the contest are as follows, a most liberal offer:

The Portsmouth Herald agrees to send three residents of Portsmouth, who are either members of the Portsmouth fire department, a social club or of some secret society, to the Pan-American exposition, pay all their expenses from the time they leave, until they return, including a week in Buffalo, with board and lodging and admission to the exposition daily.

This offer beats anything ever announced by any newspaper in New England, and is so far above the expense and interest of a trip to the national inauguration that it cannot be mentioned in the same class.

The contest will not be restricted to gentlemen but will be open to any lady who is a member of the various secret societies or auxiliary societies in Portsmouth.

The trip will include stop over privileges en route and returning and first class accommodations will be provided. In order that every detail of the grand tour may be properly looked after, the publishers will either send an agent in advance or with the party to make arrangements.

Everybody knows that the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo is to be grander and greater in every way than the World's fair and the visit will be the event of a lifetime.

The contest opened on Monday, March 4, when the first ballot appeared and which will appear daily until June 1, next, the last ballot to appear on the latter date, and the three persons having the greatest number of votes will have the grand privilege that has been offered. The last ballots must be received at the Herald office by 7:30 p. m., on Wednesday June 5, and the results of the contest will be announced at the earliest possible date.

This is an opportunity never before equalled in this section of the country and well worth the attention of everyone eligible for such a trip. Vote early and vote often. Elect yourself.

The Herald liberally modifies the offer by adding that a suitable gift will be awarded to the boy and girl sending in the most votes for any of the contestants. It may even send one of them to the exposition. Any worthy effort will be acknowledged to the satisfaction of those making it, they may feel assured.

Circulars bearing the name of Francis H. Langdon, democratic candidate for mayor, are being distributed in the city.
